

Just wanted to remind you about some events that are coming up:

Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce is hosting a zoom webinar to provide an overview of the latest Quarterly Economic, with a special look at the economy of Rochdale. Wednesday 30th September at 8.30 – 9.30am.
The panel includes:

- Chris Fletcher, Marketing & Campaigns Director; Greater Manchester Chamber
- Subrahmaniam Krishnan-Harihara, Head of Research; Greater Manchester Chamber
- Steve Rumbelow, Chief Executive; Rochdale Council

So come along and be one of the first to find out the current state of the Rochdale's economy and what will be impacting on your business over the next few months. You can also hear about the latest updates on the GM Index - the most accurate economic performance indicator around. There will also be an update on the Chamber's key economic indicators. It is free to sign up but you do need to book: <https://www.gmchamber.co.uk/events/quarterly-economic-update-rochdale-september-2020/>

Another Chamber event is 'The importance of a greener future for business' on 5th October at 10am. This event, which will be conducted via Zoom, is free for both members and non-members, but you must register.

The event will focus on why we need to make a change and how businesses can look to start working towards the ambitious target of Net-Zero by 2038 set by the Mayor. It will include speakers from Inspired Energy and Squire Patton Boggs, who will talk about clean air/environmental regulations and the tools available for businesses to become greener. The panel will also touch on case studies from some Chamber members and how they have managed to become more sustainable. The panel includes Richard Hagan from local company Crystal Doors.
